2017 Cumberland County Bike Week

Springhill BMX Park

Development began in the spring 2016. Several youth from Springhill high school volunteered their time to begin working on this future site. Several meetings later and approval through the municipality saw equipment and works begin.

Currently the park is open but under development. On site is a beginner track and mountain bike track for use right now. Future development plans include two speed tracks and a larger BMX track. Plans also include establishing a BMX Club, which will be open to any youth in Cumberland county.

With the support of local volunteers, youth and the Municipality this BMX Park will be one of a kind in our area. Saying that, it is the hope that more might pop up and that BMX and bike riding will become a major pastime for youth in Cumberland County.

'Bringing Back Play' in Cumberland County

The Municipality discusses ways to engage children in physical activities by Bringing Back Play

Over the past few years the recreation staff in Cumberland County have been putting a lot of energy and focus into "bringing back play". With a very high level of obesity in Nova Scotia and Canada's very low score on ParticipACTION's annual report card on Physical Activity for Children and Youth, we have our work cut out for us. Traditional methods of offering more programs do not seem to be having the effects we all hope for, so in addition to supporting those local programs we are also attempting to approach children through old school play.

Bring Kids' Run Club to Your Community

Doctors Nova Scotia is pleased to be offering our long-standing physical activity program, Kids' Run Club (KRC), to sport organizations across the province. This free, non-competitive running program has traditionally been implemented by schools, but can also be adapted to groups of any size and for kids of all ages. K

RC is a great opportunity for sport clubs/teams to provide team-building experiences and multisport exposure, help kids develop fundamental movement skills, and improve their physical literacy and fitness.
